

The Elite Range

For a better quality of living

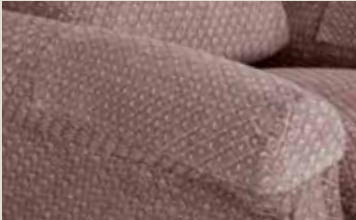

Features

The level of comfort offered by this Elite riser-recliner becomes even more important for those with a bariatric condition. There's an Elite model to suit every shape and size – the superb 35 stone capacity provides those all essential levels of support and comfort. The double motor enables you to achieve a truly comfortable position for watching television before reclining the back. And when it comes to standing, the Elite provides you with all the support you need to rise from the chair.
